PART 1: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION OVERVIEW

I am delighted to present the 2010/2011 Annual Report under the Freedom of Information Act 1982.

The Coalition Government is committed to improving integrity, transparency and accountability across government agencies through a number of important initiatives, including the establishment of Victoria's first independent Freedom of Information (FOI) Commissioner.

The Coalition Government's policy is that the FOI Commissioner will undertake first stage reviews of agency decisions, currently conducted as internal reviews within agencies. This means that, for the first time, the first stage review process will be undertaken by an independent body. It is also proposed that the FOI Commissioner will be empowered to consider complaints about the administration of the Freedom of Information Act 1982, monitor compliance with professional standards and provide advice, education and guidance to agencies. The FOI Commissioner will be appointed by the Governor in Council and will report to a joint committee of Parliament. I look forward to progressing these important reforms.

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 provides a key mechanism by which Victorians may seek access to documents held by government. In 2010/2011, the number of FOI applications received by Victorian Government agencies increased to 34,052 applications, a 8.6% increase on the previous year.

Access levels remained high, with documents provided to applicants in full or in part in 97.7% of cases. Only 2.3% of cases required exemptions in full.

For the first time, this Annual Report includes FOI statistics for all of the Committees of Management that report to the Department of Sustainability and Environment - an extra 1,218 agencies. This provides greater transparency in relation to the range of organisations that are subject to the Freedom of Information Act 1982.

PART 2: FREEDOM OF INFORMATION IN VICTORIA

2.1 Government Bodies Covered by Freedom of Information

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) provides the right to apply for access to documents held by the wide range of State Government bodies listed in this report, including ministers, state government departments, local councils, most semi-government agencies and statutory authorities, public hospitals, universities, TAFE colleges and schools. In some instances it is also possible to seek access to documents relating to services outsourced by government agencies.

2.2 About Freedom of Information (FOI)

An FOI request needs to be made in writing to the agency that holds the documents being requested.

The FOI Online website (www.foi.vic.gov.au) is an online resource which provides a range of information and resources about FOI. This includes request forms; contact details for agencies; and general information relating to FOI, such as how to make requests, locating the right agencies, costs and review rights. It also provides for online requests to be made to any of the eleven government departments or Victoria Police. Freedom of Information Annual Reports are also available on the website.

2.3 About This Report

The statistical information contained in this report was collated from data provided to the Department of Justice from 1,000 State Government bodies subject to the Act. The statistical data was requested by the department and provided on a uniform basis by agencies, in accordance with the requirements of sections 64 and 65AA of the Act.

2.4 Requests, Internal Reviews and Appeals

Table 1 provides a summary of the total number of FOI requests, internal reviews and Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) appeals, since 1984/1985. The number of requests received in each year is represented graphically in Chart 1.

Requests reported in 2010/2011 increased 8.6% on the figure for the previous year to 34,052.

Internal reviews decreased to 400 which was 1.17% of the number of FOI requests received compared with the 2009/2010 figure of 1.36%. It is the lowest such percentage ever reported. The number of internal reviews represents 5.86% of decisions made to deny access in full or in part. In 2009/2010, this figure was 7.04%. Original decisions were confirmed in 70% of internal reviews.

There were 172 VCAT appeals lodged in 2010/2011, a decrease on the 190 lodged in 2009/2010. A total of 54 cases were decided by VCAT. Agency decisions were fully confirmed in 90.7% of cases. VCAT partially upheld agency decisions in 9.3% of appeals decided. VCAT did not overturn any decision. Agencies also reported that 125 appeals were withdrawn.

2.5 Access Decisions on Requests

The level of full access to documents as a proportion of all access decisions made in 2010/2011 was 77.76% which was an increase of 0.43% from 2009/2010. There was a decrease of 0.34% in partial access decisions to 19.96% in 2010/2011. This means that applicants gained access to documents in 97.72% of requests where access decisions were made. Access was denied in full in 2.28% of decisions.

In 2010/2011, personal requests (for information mainly pertaining to the applicants themselves) represented 61% of total requests received, while non-personal requests represented the remaining 39%.

Charts 2 to 4 illustrate the outcomes of requests, reviews and appeals in 2010/2011.

Table 2: Access Decisions on FOI Requests

Note: This table reflects access decisions made in 2010/2011. It does not include situations where a request was received and one of the following applied: the applicant did not proceed with the request; the request was made in 2010/2011 but had not been decided at the end of the reporting period; the agency did not hold the documents sought; or the agency and the applicant agreed on a form of access satisfactory to the applicant outside the FOI process.

2.6 Most Frequently Cited Exemptions

In 2010/2011 the five most frequently cited exemptions in original decisions on access were (in order of most used to least used):

- Section 33: the protection of an individual's personal affairs
- Section 30: internal working documents containing opinions, advice or recommendations of officials or Ministers where it would not be in the public interest for those documents to be released
- Section 35: information obtained in confidence by government bodies
- Section 38: where a secrecy or confidentiality provision of an enactment other than the FOI Act applies to particular documents
- Section 31: law enforcement

2.7 Fees and Charges for Requests

Costs associated with FOI comprise the application fee (fees) which was $23.90 in the 2010/2011 year and access charges (charges) for access related items such as searching for documents, copying and inspection supervision.

Had the fee been charged for each application, revenue from fees would have totalled $813,818.90. Fee revenue reported however was $594,705.15.

The statistics provided to the Department of Justice indicate that, in this reporting year, fees were waived or reduced for approximately 26.9% of applications. This is calculated by multiplying the application fee ($23.90) by the total number of applications (34,052).

2.8 'Top 30' Agencies

The 'Top 30' received 85.6% of requests. Personal documents were requested in 63.1% of these requests.

PART 3: NOTES ON AGENCY STATISTICS

3.1 Introduction

No data was provided in respect of the former government Treasurer and Minister for Finance, WorkCover and the Transport Accident Commission, because documentation could not be located. Data was provided in respect of all current ministerial offices.

3.2 Requests

Appendix A1 reports the number of FOI requests received by agencies, classified as either personal or non-personal. The access outcomes are listed for all requests decided in 2010/2011, including those that were received during 2009/2010 and then decided in 2010/2011.

Appendix A2 lists 1,218 committees of management under the Department of Sustainability and Environment (DSE) which have not previously been included in this report. While DSE has advised that none of these agencies reported any FOI activity, they are included here for completeness.

3.3 Internal Reviews

An applicant has a right to appeal a decision if access is not granted in full by an agency. Usually, this involves seeking an 'internal review', by writing to the principal officer of the agency.

Appendix B contains the outcomes of internal reviews that were received or finalised in 2010/2011. The outcomes refer to whether the original decisions made by FOI officers were confirmed, varied or overturned (full access granted).

3.4 Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) Appeals

An applicant has a right to appeal a decision of an agency or minister to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal if not satisfied with the decision.

Appendix C lists appeal outcomes for those agencies that made decisions which were subsequently appealed to VCAT. The outcomes listed are for all appeals lodged or decided in 2010/2011.

VCAT utilises alternative dispute resolution processes, through which cases may be resolved prior to a hearing. If this occurs, the appeal may be withdrawn as appropriate.

3.5 Exemptions

Applicants have a right to access documents which are not subject to exemptions contained in the Act. When denying access to documents, agencies must give reasons. Appendix D lists the exemption provisions cited by agencies when denying access.

3.6 Decision Makers

Initial decisions are made by authorised persons. Internal review decisions are made by other officers of the agencies who were not involved in the original decisions.

Appendix E lists each officer, their title and the number of decisions to grant access in full, grant access in part or deny access to documents. It also lists each internal review officer and the number of times original decisions were confirmed, varied or overturned.

3.7 Fees and Charges

In 2010/2011, an application fee (fee) of $23.90 was required under the Act when making an FOI request. Fees are waived or reduced where payment would cause hardship.

Access charges (charges) are payable when an access decision has been made. Charges relate to copies of documents, providing access in alternate forms, the supervision of access to documents, search costs and generating documents from electronic data. Charges must be waived where the applicant is impecunious and the request is for personal documents. The Act also provides other circumstances where access charges are not payable.

3.8 Retrospective Access

Personal documents concerning an applicant are not subject to a time limit. The Act requires information to be collected on the practicability of extending the period of retrospective access to non-personal documents. Currently, non-personal documents created prior to 1978 or, in the case of councils, 1989 are not subject to the Act. As requests are seldom made for such documents, there appears little need to extend retrospective access.

¹ The data in this table is based on the number and type of decisions handed down by the Tribunal in 2010/2011, whether or not those decisions were as a result of appeals lodged in that year or previous years. This is necessary given the time that can often pass between an appeal being lodged, the mediation and other processes that can occur prior to a formal hearing, and a final decision being handed down by the Tribunal.

² Previous ministerial portfolios are amalgamated with related current portfolios.

³ 'Appeals Withdrawn from VCAT' figures are also included in the 'Other' column.

⁴ 'VCAT confirmed agency decision' includes situations where a case was struck out, or the matter was dismissed.

⁵ 'Other' includes cases that were withdrawn or settled prior to the VCAT hearing or not yet decided by the Tribunal. It also includes cases in which applicants wish to argue that documents which should have been discovered were not discovered.

¹ Some agencies show nil returns in respect of application fees, both collected and waived. This can happen where the FOI requests they received were either received in the previous reporting year or were transferred to the agency from another agency, in which case, the original agency would have received and reported the application fee.
