

Publication of FOI Review Decisions

From 1 July 2019, OVIC will publish all decisions that have been received by the Information Commissioner on or after 1 January 2019

Publication of FOI Review Decisions

Why?

- To promote understanding and acceptance by agencies and the public of the FOI Act and its object

When?

- The Notice of Decision will be published on the OVIC and AustLII websites after the decision is provided to the applicant and the agency

What will be published?

- A de-identified copy of the decision made by the Information Commissioner under section 49P of the FOI Act
- The published notice of decision will not include any information that will directly identify an individual (such as names), however, agency names will be published
- The name of organisations will generally be published (for example, the name of a media organisation or community action group)

How will we support you?

OVIC will deliver:

- Information Access Series Seminars
- Promotional content for agencies to share with applicants
 - Infographic
 - Stickers
- Social media content
- Digital advertising
 - Updated website content
 - Banners directing website traffic
 - Fact sheets for agencies and public
