FREEDOM OF INFORMATION – restructure – redundancy – position description – draft documents

All references to legislation in this document are to the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Vic) (FOI Act) unless otherwise stated.

Notice of Decision

I have conducted a review under section 49F of the Agency's decision to refuse access to documents requested by the Applicant under the FOI Act.

My decision on the Applicant's request differs from the Agency's decision.

I am not satisfied the documents are exempt from release under section 30(1).

As I am satisfied it is practicable to provide the Applicant with an edited copy of the documents with irrelevant information deleted in accordance with section 25, I have determined to grant access to the documents in part.

The Schedule of Documents in Annexure 1 sets out my decision in relation to each document.

My reasons for decision follow.

Shantelle Ryan
Acting Public Access Deputy Commissioner

18 January 2024

Reasons for Decision

Background to review

1. The Applicant made a request to the Agency seeking access to documents. Following consultation with the Applicant the terms of request were confirmed as follows:
 1. All documents (including drafts, emails, correspondence, reports, memorandums and/or notes) relating to:
 - a. Any decision to make, or acknowledgment that [name] former position of [position title] may or will be made, redundant in accordance with Country Fire Authority Professional, Technical and Administrative Agreement 2021; or
 - b. Any decision to advertise the new position of [position title] in [month year]. (Excluding duplicate documents, commercial information relating to third parties and personal information relating to third parties); and
 2. Any emails, CFA staff consultation packs or presentations relating to "Proposed changes to [agency function] structure" (existing document), specifically mentioning redundancy of CFA [position title].
2. The Applicant indicated that they do not require duplicate documents, commercial information relating to third parties and personal information relating to third parties but do require draft documents.
3. The Agency identified 229 documents falling within the terms of the Applicant's request. The Agency decided to release 69 documents in full and 160 documents in part. In exempting certain information, the Agency relied on section 30(1). The Agency's decision letter sets out the reasons for its decision.

Review application

4. The Applicant sought review by the Information Commissioner under section 49A(1) of the Agency's decision to refuse access.
5. I have examined a copy of the documents subject to review.
6. The Applicant and the Agency were invited to make a written submission under section 49H(2) in relation to the review.
7. I have considered all communications and submissions received from the parties.
8. In undertaking my review, I have had regard to the object of the FOI Act, which is to create a general right of access to information in the possession of the Government or other public bodies, limited only by exceptions and exemptions necessary to protect essential public interests, privacy and business affairs.
9. I note Parliament's intention the FOI Act must be interpreted so as to further the object of the Act and any discretions conferred by the Act must be exercised, as far as possible, so as to facilitate and promote the disclosure of information in a timely manner and at the lowest reasonable cost.

Initial view

10. My office provided the Agency with the initial view that the documents subject to review would likely not be exempt under section 30(1). My office asked the Agency to identify information it considered particularly sensitive and provided it with an opportunity to make further submissions.
11. The Agency responded that it maintained its view section 30(1) applied to certain information in the documents. The Agency's response to the initial view has been considered below.

Review of exemptions

Section 30(1) – Internal working documents

12. Section 30(1) has three requirements:
 - (a) the document must disclose matter in the nature of opinion, advice or recommendation prepared by an officer or Minister, or consultation or deliberation that has taken place between officers, Ministers or an officer and a Minister; and
 - (b) such matter must be made in the course of, or for the purpose of, the deliberative processes involved in the functions of an agency or Minister or of the government; and
 - (c) disclosure of the matter would be contrary to the public interest.
13. The exemption does not apply to purely factual material in a document.¹

Do the documents disclose matter in the nature of opinion, advice or recommendation prepared by an officer or Minister, or consultation or deliberation that has taken place between officers, Ministers or an officer and a Minister?

14. For the requirements of section 30(1) to be met, a document must contain matter in the nature of opinion, advice or recommendation prepared by an agency officer, or consultation or deliberation between agency officers.
15. It is not necessary for a document to be in the nature of opinion, advice or recommendation. Rather, the issue is whether release of the document would disclose matter of that nature.²
16. Section 30(3) provides purely factual information is not exempt under section 30(1). This provision must be considered in conjunction with section 25, which allows for an edited copy of a document to be released with exempt or irrelevant information deleted, where it is practicable to do so.
17. The documents describe a process undertaken to restructure a particular function of the Agency. I am satisfied they disclose matters in the nature of opinion, advice and recommendation prepared by Agency officers for the purposes of section 30(1).

² Mildenhall v Department of Education (1998) 14 VAR 87.

Were the documents made in the course of, or for the purpose of, the deliberative processes involved in the functions of an agency or Minister or of the government?

18. The term 'deliberative process' is interpreted broadly and includes any of the processes of deliberation or consideration involved in the functions of an agency, Minister or government.³
19. In Re Waterford and Department of Treasury (No.2),⁴ the former Victorian Administrative Appeals Tribunal held:

... "deliberative processes" [is] wide enough to include any of the processes of deliberation or consideration involved in the functions of an agency... In short, ...its thinking processes — the processes of reflection, for example, upon the wisdom and expediency of a proposal, a particular decision or a course of action.
20. I am satisfied the documents were made in the course of the deliberative processes of the Agency, being effecting structural change in the Agency.

Would disclosure of the documents be contrary to the public interest?

21. In deciding if release is contrary to the public interest, I must consider all relevant facts and circumstances remaining mindful that the object of the FOI Act is to facilitate and promote the disclosure of information.
22. In deciding whether the information exempted by the Agency would be contrary to the public interest, I have given weight to the following relevant factors:⁵
 - (a) the right of every person to gain access to documents under the FOI Act;
 - (b) the degree of sensitivity of the issues discussed in the documents and the broader context giving rise to the creation of the documents;
 - (c) the stage of a decision or status of policy development or a process being undertaken at the time the communications were made;
 - (d) whether disclosure of the documents would be likely to inhibit communications between Agency officers, essential for the agency to make an informed and well-considered decision or participate fully and properly in a process in accordance with the Agency's functions and other statutory obligations;
 - (e) whether disclosure of the documents would give merely a part explanation, rather than a complete explanation for the taking of a particular decision or the outcome of a process, which the Agency would not otherwise be able to explain upon disclosure of the documents;

³ Brog v Department of Premier and Cabinet (1989) 3 VAR 201 at [208].

⁴ [1984] AATA 67; (1984) 5 ALD 588; 1 AAR 1 at [58].

⁵ Hulls v Victorian Casino and Gambling Authority (1998) 12 VAR 483.

- (f) the impact of disclosing documents in draft form, including disclosure not clearly or accurately representing a final position or decision reached by the Agency at the conclusion of a decision or process; and
- (g) the public interest in the community being better informed about the way in which the Agency carries out its functions, including its deliberative, consultative and decision-making processes and whether the underlying issues require greater public scrutiny.

23. The Agency submits in part:

There is inherent sensitivity in dealing with workplace restructures and related matters, particularly where they involve giving or seeking of legal advice [Citing Moloney v Department of Human Services (2001) 18 VAR 238; Mees v University of Melbourne [2009] VCAT 782; Giudice v Environment Protection Authority (Unreported, VCAT, SM Megay, 14 May 2004); Koch v Swinburne University [2004] VCAT 1513].

The communications, particularly in relation to a possible restructure, were considered and dealt with at high levels within the organisation and there was an associated high level of confidentiality; knowledge of the material was on a need-to-know basis only.

The draft nature of some of the documents is important. Although not necessarily universally exempt, it is more often than not inappropriate to release drafts and preliminary exchanges of views and opinions. [Citing Yarra City Council v Roads Corporation [2009] VCAT 2646, [24]].

In all the circumstances, it is submitted that disclosure would be contrary to the public interest.

24. I have considered the Agency's submissions with respect to the question of whether release of the documents would be contrary to the public interest however, I am not satisfied it would be contrary to the public interest to release certain information the documents for the following reasons:

- (a) I am not satisfied disclosure of the documents to the Applicant will have an impact on the Agency as described in its submission. In my view, any impact on the Agency will be minimal and does not outweigh the public interest in disclosure.
- (b) I note some of the subject matter in the documents is sensitive as it relates to the roles of Agency officers and potential redundancies that, at one point, may have been confidential. However, as described by the documents, that information was shared with staff as part of the restructure process.
- (c) While some of the information in draft form may have changed over the course of the restructure process, I do not consider disclosure of draft information would have a detrimental impact on the Agency in the circumstances of this matter, particularly where the final version of the draft information is released.
- (d) I consider disclosure of the draft information demonstrates Agency officers applying their knowledge and expertise to bring about the changes deemed necessary by the Agency.

- (e) I also consider transparency around such decisions is in the public interest where it can assist in engendering trust in the Agency's human resources processes.
- (f) I note some of the documents are in early draft form, particularly handwritten notes and word documents with significant track changes. In some instances, the information is so preliminary in nature I consider disclosure may be contrary to the public interest. However, in this case, there is no information before me that places this information at a level that would be detrimental to the Agency if disclosed.
- (g) Some of the information exempted by the Agency lacks any sensitivity and relates only to generic and standard human resources practices. When asked to identify any information it considered particularly sensitive, the Agency did not do so.

Accordingly, having reviewed the information claimed to be exempt by the Agency under section 30(1), I have determined it would not be contrary to the public interest to release this information and it is therefore not exempt.

Section 25 – Deletion of exempt or irrelevant information

- 25. Section 25 requires an agency to grant access to an edited copy of a document where it is practicable to delete exempt or irrelevant information and the applicant agrees to receiving such a copy.
- 26. Determining what is 'practicable' requires consideration of the effort and editing involved in making the deletions 'from a resources point of view'⁶ and the effectiveness of the deletions. Where deletions would render a document meaningless, they are not 'practicable' and release of the document is not required under section 25.⁷
- 27. I have considered the information the Agency deleted from the documents as irrelevant. I agree it falls outside the scope of the Applicant's request as it relates to matters or persons other than those specified in the request, or is not sought by the Applicant.
- 28. I have considered the effect of deleting irrelevant information from the documents. In my view, it is practicable for the Agency to delete the irrelevant information, because it would not require substantial time and effort, and the edited documents would retain meaning.

Conclusion

- 29. On the information before me, I am not satisfied certain information identified by the Agency in the documents is exempt from release under section 30(1).
- 30. As I am satisfied it is practicable to provide the Applicant with an edited copy of the documents with irrelevant information deleted in accordance with section 25, access is granted in part.
