

Do you know about your right to ask for Government documents?

You have the right to make a Freedom of Information (FOI) request to a minister or government agency.

You can contact OVIC to:

- get information about making an FOI request
- ask for a review of an FOI decision
- make a complaint about how an FOI request is handled

OVIC is independent

Visit ovic.vic.gov.au/freedom-of-information/for-the-public/ for more information or ask your Community Legal Centre for a copy of OVIC's FOI Fact Sheet.

You can contact OVIC via email at enquiries@ovic.vic.gov.au, call us on 1300 006 842, or write to us by post at PO Box 24274, Melbourne Vic 3001.

If you speak a language other than English, you can contact us using a telephone translator using the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 131 450 and providing OVIC's client code C972652.

OVIC

Office of the Victorian
Information Commissioner

We acknowledge the traditional Aboriginal custodians of country throughout Victoria and pay our respect to them, their culture and their Elders past, present and emerging.

